

HONORS ANNOUNCED AT LUCY COBB INSTITUTE

MISS ISABEL HILSMAN, OF ATHENS, TAKES FIRST HONOR IN SENIOR LATIN AND ENGLISH COURSE.

ATHENS, Ga., May 30.—It is only a week until the Lucy Cobb commencement season opens. The year has been a most prosperous one and the exercises this year will be unusually interesting, and a large number of visitors will be in the city for the occasion. The honors have been announced and are as follows:

Senior honors—Latin and English course—Isabel Tilman, Athens, first honor; Mamie Coffee, Valdosta; Irene Walker, Monroe; Janet King, Athens; Martha Trout, Athens, second honors.

French and English course led by Miss Mattie Wilson, Athens.

English course led by Miss Eleanor Hunnicutt, Athens; Miss Harriet Ellis, Atlanta.

Last evening the Lucy Cobb alumnae gave an entertainment which netted a neat sum for the Lucy Cobb building fund. At several of the residences along the line of the street railway on Prince avenue and Milledge avenue, supports, teas, musical and other attractions gave delight to all the patrons of the affair.

The commencement address to the city schools of Brunswick was delivered yesterday by Hon. T. J. Shackelford, of this city.

On June 5th the expression class of Lucy Cobb Institute, under the direction of Miss Augusta Center, will present Shakespeare's "Mid-Summer Night's Dream." The orchestra accompaniment of Mendelssohn music will add to the effectiveness of the presentation.
