

COX COLLEGE HAS GREAT CONCERT

MAGNIFICENT AND BRILLIANT PROGRAM RENDERED MON- DAY EVENING IN COLLEGE CHAPEL.

The program by the A. B. graduates of Cox college attracted a large and cultured audience last night, and illustrated the excellent training the pupils had received in English from Professor Cox, as well as in elocution from the accomplished Miss Trappe.

The debate was sparkling and mirth-provoking and showed thought.

Miss Shannon's sketch of Hamlet was discriminating and appreciative of the delicate lights and shades. Miss Munday's address was noble and uplifting, and was delivered without notes in eloquent manner.

The program in full was as follows:
