

A much published photograph from 1904 shows students at the Wylie School, near what is now Embury Hills. Students ranged in age from six years to as old as the teacher would keep them. In the first row, left to right, are Floyd Weed, Roy Weed, Delmus Britt, George Goza, Clarence Ross, Will Goza, Troy Gullledge and Ledford Nuckolls. In the second row are Eula Wylie, Lola Wylie, Abbie Warren, Belle Nuckolls, Ethel Warren, Ara Morris, Mrs. Mamie

Ledford (the teacher), Roxie Britt, Lena Gullledge and Roy Chesnut. In the third row are Charlie Gay, Julia Wylie, Eva Warren, Nellie Gay, Lillie Britt, Gertrude Chesnut, Berta Britt, Ophelia Nuckolls and Cora Brooks. The fourth row includes Frank Ross, Emory Chesnut, Morgan Henderson, William Ross, Tavie Henderson, Betty Chesnut, Reid Wylie, Glad Henderson and Reid Miller.