

TURNER IED AT ITMAN

MBER OF FRIENDS
ED ONES FOLLOW
—MANY FLORAL TRI-
MPLE SERVICE.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Ma., June 11.—The funeral of Hon. Henry G. Turner was held at the Western cemetery this morning at 10 o'clock by Rev. J. M.
Coble, assisted by Rev. J. W.
Coble, pastor of the Methodist church.
A large number of friends and loved ones followed the remains of the distinguished man to his last resting place. He was a universally loved and services was a very solemn, one, and consisted of the reading of new verses from the Bible, then a tribute to the deceased by Mr. Lovett and the closing prayer.

A large number who attended from the towns in adjoining counties, and a large number of floral tributes from various parts of the house in the town was the courthouse and bank of the town draped in mourning.

Those present were Dr. E. A. Jelks, W. Oglesby, S. S. Roundell, McIntosh, E. J. Young and others, all of whom were his friends and associates in the various offices in which the deceased

G. W. M'WHORTER WINS BIG DEBATE AT MERCER

Student From Greensboro, Ga., Representing Ciceronian Society, Gains Laurels as Speaker.

G. W. M'WHORTER, Who Won Annual Debate For Ciceronians at Mercer University.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
MERCER UNIVERSITY, Macon, Ga.
June 11.—G. W. McWhorter, of Greensboro, Ga., representing the Ciceronian Society, has carried off the laurels as annual oratorical speaker this year. His effort was given great praise.

The other representative of the Ciceronian society was Solon B. Cousins, of Lutherville, Ga., who also made a fine speech. Both of the Phi Delta men made good speeches. They were R. L. Bolton of Milner, Ga., and R. O. Jackson, of Mc-Donough.