

CONTEST HELD AT DALLAS FOR HIGH SCHOOL MEDAL

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

DALLAS, Ga., June 5.--Last Thursday evening the pupils of the Dallas High School competed for the camp medal, offered annually for the best recitation or declamation. The complete program is as follows:

Overture, Citizen's Silver Band.
Absolution, Reba Edmondson.
If I Live 'Till Sundown I Shall Get Well,
Roland Moon.

Sonny's Diploma, Ione Foster.
Music--Citizens' Silver Band.
Christmas Greens, Elcer Hitchcock.
The Bear Story, Irma Foster.
Jack Hall's Boat Race, May Belle Hitchcock.
Music, Citizens' Silver Band.
Defense of Hofer, Carl Ragsdale.
Lincoln's Second Inaugural Address, Omar
Lam.

John Temple Graves' Address at Gordon's
Funeral, Joe I. Matthews.

Music, Citizens' Silver Band.
Mr. Travar's First Mount, Maud Griffin.
Harvard vs. Yale, Loula Helma.
Bobby Shaftoe, Edna Sanders.
Music, Citizens' Silver Band.
The New South and the Race Problem,
Aubrey Matthews.

Pamella Spicer at the Beach, Clara Moon.
Our Heroes, Hugh Watson.
Music, Citizens' Silver Band.
A Village Singer, Loula Davis.
How Tom Sawyer Whitewashed the Fence,
Bertie Wheeler.

A Legend of Bregenz, Elberta Bennett.
Music, Citizens' Silver Band.
Haunted by a Song, Nellie Spinks.
Our Folks, Lillie Wicks.
Music, Citizens' Silver Band.
Delivery of Medal.

All of the contestants did so well that the judges found it hard to decide to whom they should give the medal, but finally agreed to award it to Miss Clara Moon.

The following were selected as judges: Commissioner W. B. Merritt, of Atlanta; Prof.
ra Williams, of Temple, and Prof. G. F. Van-ble, of Rockmart.