

~~Atlanta Journal~~ June 5

GORDON INSTITUTE HOLDS ITS ANNUAL EXERCISES

BARNESVILLE, Ga., June 5.—The thirty-third annual commencement of Gordon Institute began yesterday, under the most favorable auspices. A very large crowd was present in the auditorium which had assembled to listen to the sermon by Dr. J. W. Millard, of Atlanta. He took for his text the words of Paul as found in the Romans 7:9—"And I died." He made a most impressive and helpful sermon out of the subject. He drew an interesting picture of the early life of the apostle and showed how he died to the old ways and beliefs in readjusting himself to the new conditions. Dr. Millard inspired old and young with the thoughts he presented and made an earnest appeal for all to come to Jesus. The sermon was a most effective one. There was an excellent musical program, furnished by the choirs of the city. Dr. Millard also preached an able sermon at the evening service.

This morning the sophomore exhibition took place in which there were readings and speeches by the following members of the class: Miss Ruth Lamblin, Miss Minnie Tyler, Miss Nell Adams, Miss Annie Kate Smith, Miss Fannie May Porch, Miss Martha Wilkinson, T. M. Fitzpatrick, E. P. Sappington, C. W. Franklin, Fred Miller, W. L. Burch, J. W. Castellow.

Tomorrow morning, Hon. John Temple Graves, of Atlanta, will make an address at the conclusion of the exercises by the junior class. There are a great many visitors in the city and