ENCEMENT EXERCISES MRE HELD AT TENNILLE

Dispatch to The Journal.)

Ga., June 3.—The closing ex-

Countile Institute, this week, are of the most successful years

Melson has been superintendent during the past two years. An-added to is curkriculum last reason there will be no gradu-

Addition program was successfully ren-

Gelop-Galbearts. Misses Lowe

Annie M. Smith. Dale-Engelmann. First piano, and Adams; second piano, Misses Show Drop.

on the glow worms who plan plain for the fairy dance. and announce the coming of the queen enters driving butterfiles.

worms dance and sing. Enter worms dance and sing.

andants. A butterfly enters and arrival of the members of the ach fairy is allowed to select will represent and Butterfly into the different flowers they

One little fairy choses to be a flowers enter and each one nowers enter and each one of her work. Thistledown find-selfish pleasure unsaisfying, trial to redeem herself. The has request. Thistledown is may assigned her.

Strabog. Lucile Cox and Eula

Twelve boys and girls. M. Smith.
W. Sixtoen girls.

Jano, Miss Mathis.

Day-Eight boys and girls.

Latt.' First plano, Misses Lowe

A, B, C." Milo Smith and Marguerite Smith, Pauline h, Mary Burdette. The Me-Webb. Pauline Mertz, ne young ladies.

an able and impressive ser-Monday morning an eloquent Monday morning an eloquent Was delivered by Hon. day morning an eloquent was delivered by Hon. Lacon, in his original style, ceature was a contest for itd by Mr. J. W. Smith for the best orator of the evening. The following is the program of the evening:

The state of the s

Duet—Dambini; Duety. Misses Lowe and R. Smith.

Jordan-"Centralization." Paul E. tract from Henry W. Grady's speech. John A. Barge-"Let the Philippines Go." Delivered in United States senate by Charles

Towne, of Nebraska. Robt. A. Kelley, Jr.—"Grandeur of Moral Courage." Portrayal of a dramatic incident in Roman history. Little Corporal—Julia Franklin. Beirne Smith—"Right Never Settled by Might." J. B. Gordon's famous impromptu speech. Smith-"Defence of an Ex-slave." Wilbur real incident in murder trial, Jeffersonville, Ga. Leonard Freeman—"Separation the Only So-ition to the Race Problem." John T. John T.

lution to the Race Problem." John T. Graves' speech at the Montgomery conference. Dress Parade—Maud Brantley, L. Cochran. J. C. Hamilton—"Prohibition in Atlanta." Delivered by H. W. Grady at close of prohibition campaign. Clement F. Brown-"Educate the Country An appeal by W. A. Candler before the Georgia legislature. J. Porter Davis-"Surrey's Dream." Taken from last chapter of "Surrey of the Eagle's Nest." Commencement March—Misses Smith, Lowe, Hudson, Ham, Lingo, Moore.

Wm. H. Bronson—"The Famous Cross of Gold Speech." By W. J. Bryant.

J. Mark Stanley—"March to Appomattox." Taken from speech of J. W. Daniel, of Virginia, at unveiling of monument to R. E. Lee. Harry B. Hatch—"Napoleon the Little." Victor Hugo's withering denunciation of Napoleon the II. Fifth Nocturn-First piano, Miss Lingo; second piano, Miss Lowe.

Drill Fantastico-Sixteen young Japanese ladies. Rediew-Engelmann. First piano. Parade Misses Lowe and M. Smith; Misses Lord and Lingo. second plane, Delivery of the gold medal.

The judges, Messrs. E. H. Sullivan, W. E. Armstead and J. E. Hyman, awarded the medal to Mr. Porter Davis. awarded the Hon. Marvin Williams will deliver a lecture at the auditorium. Tuesday evening, in behalf of the Tennille Institute library. Frof. Melson has been unanimously re-elect-ed by the board of trustees for another year.

Murine Eye Remedy Cures Eyes: Makes Weak Eyes Strong. Soothes Eye Pain. Doesn't Smart.

Conspiracy is Alleged. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., June 8 .- A very pecuthe federal statutes has developed in this city. Some time ago David McGinnis, of Carbon Hill, took the bankrupt law. It is alleged that shortly after he did this, J. Morgan Pierce, Howe Hinsley and Thomas Segars went to him and represented to him that he had to him and represented to him that he had Charlings and represented to him that he had