

COX COLLEGE WILL CLOSE MAY 21

ELABORATE PROGRAM IS PREPARED FOR GRADU- ATING EXERCISES AND CONCERT.

The annual concert and graduating exercises of the Cox college and conservatory, which will be held at College Park May 21st, include one of the most elaborate programs ever presented by that institution.

Although the graduating exercises and the concert will be held Monday evening, the baccalaureate sermon will be preached Sunday afternoon, May 30th, at 3:30 o'clock in the college chapel by Rev. Adiel J. Moncrief. An especially interesting program has been prepared for the sacred concert.

The following program will attend the Sunday exercises:

Adante from Sonata in G major, Elgar-Browne.

Doxology and invocation.

Hymn, "Holy, Holy, Holy."

Scripture reading.

Prayer.

Corde Natus, Prudentius; choral union, mezzo-soprano solo—Miss Margaret Hurst.

Baccalaureate sermon—Rev. Adiel J. Moncrief.

Prayer.

"O, Thou That Tellest," Handel—Mrs. Macclure.

Hymn, "How Firm a Foundation."

Benediction.

Graduating Exercises.

The graduating exercises and the annual concert, which will be held Monday evening at 8:15 o'clock in the college chapel, will be as follows:

Concerto for piano in G minor, op. 25, Mendelssohn, Adante, Presto—Miss Maud M. Campbell, orchestra score in reduction for organ.
