

High School Girls To Receive Diplomas June 1

Fifty-Six Young Ladies To Graduate---Program of Exercises Announced For First Time.

The annual commencement exercises of the Girl's High school will be held on the evening of Friday, June 1, at the Grand opera house. Fifty-six girls will receive diplomas, and a program of unusual variety and interest has been arranged.

Following is the program in detail:

Prayer.

Chorus, "Wake Not, Dreaming Maiden"

—Class.

Essay, "The Girls' High School, 1902-1906"—Helen Ware.

Part Song. (a) "Stars of the Summer Night"; (b) "O, How Sweet the Breeze of May."

Semi-Chorus from Class.

Essay, "Industrial Education"—Queen Lowry.

Chorus, "The Home of Freedom"—Class.

Essay, "The Cavalier," written by Myrtis Corker—Read by Dorothy Breitenbucher.

Presentation of diplomas by Luther Z. Rosser, president of the board of education.

Class March: Leaders, Mabel Carlyon and Bell Catlett.

Graduating Class.

Following are the names of the graduates: Mabel Abbott, Kate Alsabrook, Jennie Anderson, Bessie Bailey, Roselyn Benjamin, Dorothy Breitenbucher, Mabel Carlyon, Nellie B. Catlett, Mary Clayton, Myrtis Corker, Willie Crusselle, Ethel Daniel, Ethleen Dobbs, Rosalie Eubanks, Alice Everett, Ethel Everhart, Annie Gibbs, Julia Goode, Claire Guerard, Mamie Heinz, Mattie Hill, May La Fontaine, Camey Martin, Charlotte Middleton, Eva Miller, Cecile Mensolvatge, Louise McGovern, Jeannette McLeod, Beatrice Nelms, Carrie Norcross, Julianne Pace, Emma Phillips, Gertrude Reynolds, Elizabeth Silvey, Frances Smith, Frank Taylor, Jessie Terry, Helen Ware, Beulah M. Brooks, Clara Camp, Katherine Cook, Annie L. Copellin, Vera Daniel, Bertha Dickinson, Nellie Hollingsworth, Eula Kinsey, Queen Lowry, Lucy Meador, Lena Oester, Alma Overby, Carrie Rosenberg, Vivian Sewell, Laurie Shuford, Minnie Simmons, Annie Turner, Mary White.