

N. G. A. COLLEGE HAS ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT

Session Just Closed Has Been One of Most Successful in History of College.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

DAHLONEGA, Ga., June 5.—On Wednesday at 11 a. m., the North Georgia Agricultural College closed one of its most pleasant and instructive commencements. The year that has just closed has been one of the most successful, in many ways, the college has known. President Glenn is a harmonizer, unifier and upbuilder of the first class, and the trustees hope to be able to retain him as leader for the college for many years.

The following was the program which has just been given throughout the commencement:

Saturday, June 2—8:30 p. m.: Sub-freshman "B" class declamation; first medal won by R. F. Welchel, Price, Ga.; second medal won by Mattie Craig, Dahlonega, Ga.

Sunday, June 3—11 a. m.—Baccalaureate sermon, Dr. Chas. O. Jones, Atlanta, Ga. 8:30 p. m., sermon, Dr. Chas. R. Jones, Atlanta, Ga.

Monday, June 4—10 a. m.: Sub-freshman "A" declamation. First medal won by W. J. Daniel, Eastman, Ga.; second medal won by Frances Staton, Dahlonega, Ga.

11 a. m.—Address by State School Commissioner Merritt.

3 p. m.—Company and individual prize drills. An elegant sword won by Company A, as being the best general average company. Individual prize won by A. A. Burch, Montgomery county, Ga.

8:30 p. m.—Sophomore declamation. First medal won by Jeff Findley, Dahlonega, Ga.; second medal won by Lizzie Shed, Jefferson, Ga.

Tuesday, June 5—10 a. m.: Freshman declamation. First medal won by Chas. T. Buchanan, Jackson, Ga.; second medal won by Fannie McGuire, Dahlonega, Ga.

11 a. m.—Baccalaureate address, Dr. W. R. Foote, Dahlonega, Ga.

8:30 p. m.—Musical entertainment, by Miss Ellene Glenn and her music class.

10 p. m.—Alumni reception at the home of Prof. Gaillard.

Wednesday, June 6—10 a. m.: Graduating exercises, delivery of medals, etc. The Frank P. Rice Latin medal, won by Miss Lizzie Shed, Jefferson, Ga. The Harlow Clark mathematics medal, won by Bruce Ray, Fannin county, Ga. Medals awarded in music by Miss Ellene Glenn. General excellence, Miss Fanny McGuire. Harmony, Miss Pearl Anderson. Improvement, Miss Lillian Glenn. Interpretation, Miss Louise Glenn.

The following is a list of the graduates for this year:

B. S. degree—G. M. Barnes, first honor, Stinson, Ga.; W. S. Gaillard, Dahlonega, Ga.; W. L. Jackson, Stockbridge, Ga.

B. Ed. degree—G. C. McKibben, Butts county, Georgia.

B. Agr. degree—J. E. Phillips, Fannin county, Ga.; W. E. Broach, Walton county, Ga.; E. W. Davidson, Atlanta, Ga.; R. V. Moore, Dahlonega, Ga.; C. D. Burnett, Washington county, Ga.

B. H. S. degree—Y. J. Simmons, Gainesville, Ga.; Jule T. Knox, Westminster, S. C.

Negro Convicts Escape.

www.gagraduates.com