

Monarchs By Speeding Sprinters'

TECH'S FIERCE FIGHTING YELLOWJACKETS WHO WILL FACE THE RED AND BLACK

Reading from left to right: Top row—Wright, McCarty, Corbin, Combs. Middle—McMillen, Robert, Butler, Heisman, Day, Lafitte. Bottom—Stiles, Beane, Hamilton, Knight, Wilson.

COACH HEISMAN WRITES ABOUT THE CHAMPIONSHIP

Man Who Has Carried the Fierce Yellow-jackets to Victory Scores of Times Tells of the Great Race for College Honors.

By J. W. HEISMAN.

The greatest possible interest is being manifested in the two struggles to be waged this and tomorrow afternoon by the two crack teams representing the University of Georgia and the Tech.

For once the college teams of every state in the south have been eliminated from the championship race save those of the Empire State. Vanderbilt, Sewanee, Cumberland, Alabama, Nashville, Auburn, Wofford, Clemson, Trinity, Mer-

Not only are the two teams as a whole the best in southland, but in Sullivan and Lafitte they have beyond all doubt the two best college pitchers of the year. Strange to say, both have had recent injuries to the knee, but it is expected that both will be well and sound when the factory whistles blow for 4 o'clock on Saturday afternoon and the two go prancing out to meet the foe. The whole Georgia student body is coming up and as every Tech student will also be on hand, we may look for such rooting as Atlanta never saw.

www.gegraduates.com

DOPE DROPS FOR DAILY

Dale Gear, with the Birmingham, is batting the ball at a great rate. Molesworth is slowly coming back to his own, also.

In Tuesday's game with the Reds, Mike Donlin, of the Giants, sure got his share of bingles. He got two singles and a double, driving in two of the New York runs. In the seventh Mike sprained his ankle, which will probably keep him out of the game for three or four weeks.

Pat Dougherty has at last done it. He deserted Griffith's team two weeks ago and has joined the Lancaster Tri-State league of the outlaws.

President Spencer has suspended Dan McGann indefinitely. This is the second time this season Dan has been in trouble. McGraw says that Umpire Johnstone is simply carrying out a threat that he made last year to get even with the New York team.

Make the most of it in Jack Sutherland.