

SCHOOLS AT WINDER HAVE CLOSING EXERCISES

Misses Hardigree and Oneal Share
Equally the First Honors of Class.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

WINDER, Ga., May 25.—Tuesday night witnessed the closing exercises of the Winder city school.

The graduating exercises consisted of ten recitations from the ten graduates of the school. Misses Memphis Hardigree and Gussie O'Neal shared equally the first honors of the class.

In the contest for medals in declamation in grades one to six, medals were awarded to Roscoe Hardigree and Willie May Sheats. Medals in grades five to ten were awarded to Hays Griffith and Annette Quillian. The judges experienced great difficulty in awarding the medals, so close was the contest.

EATONTON SCHOOL RE-ELECTS ITS TEACHERS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

EATONTON, Ga., May 25.—Commencement exercises began Thursday with the elocution department, and music recitals of the classes of Mrs. Lambdin and Mrs. Hardon.

Rev. Troy F. Beattie, of Atlanta, will preach the commencement sermon Sunday morning.

Sam Small, of Atlanta, delivers the literary address at the graduating exercises on the evening of May 21st at the Eatonton opera house.

The senior class reception occurs at the home of Professor W. O. Wright on Tuesday evening, May 22nd.