

BESSIE TIFT COLLEGE HAS ITS GRADUATION

Dr. John E. White, of Atlanta, Delivers Baccalaureate Address. Medals Are Awarded.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
FORSYTH, Ga., May 30.—The regular exercises of graduation took place in the college auditorium May 28. Dr. John E. White, D. D., of Atlanta, delivered the baccalaureate address, taking as his subject, "The Growing of a Soul."

Following the address by Dr. White, Rev. B. J. W. Graham, of Atlanta, delivered the medals of the various departments. Miss Jame Duggan, Sparta, Ga., winning the junior medal for general excellence. Miss Lois L. Crawford, Royle, Ga., the Pickard medal; Miss Annie Oxford, of Fitzgerald, the vocal medal, and one uniform medal; Miss Addie Pinkston, of Parrott, Ga., the uniform medal; Miss Rose Baker, Warrenton, Ga., the ready writer medal, given by Mr. Wm. D. Upshaw; Miss Bessie Dunn, the fiction medal, and Miss Ezra Morrison, of Jackson, Ga., the piano medal.

The following girls received the A. B. degree from the college: Misses Lottie Appleby, Sallie May Arnold, Rose Baker, Warren Battle, Alice Barton, Juliet Bracewell, Dora Briggs, Mary Lou Carmichael, Maude Cheney, Hattie Collins, Lois Crawford, Minnie Conner, Nelle Dix, Nannie Dover, Clara Davis, Bessie Fields, Flora Goss, Loreno Graham, Annie Harper, Sue Tom Hagan, Rose Myrtle Hagan, Ethel Jackson, Oostee Jones, Jonnie May Joy, Fannie Alice Moore, Inez McDaniel, Maggie Mull, Nelle Pulsan, Lucile Zellner. Diplomas in the music department were given to Misses Carrie Belle Edwards, Carrie Warshaw, Maule Quiley, and Miss Claudia Dunoway received the conservatory degree of music of New York. B. S. degrees were given to Misses Nelle Landrum and Flora Bonner, and the diploma in expression was given to Miss Augusta Hatcher.

SHORT TALKS BY L. T. COOPER.

ALL WORN OUT.

This is the time of year for the "all worn out" feeling. You hear it everywhere. "I'm all worn out." Did you ever stop to think what it means? Well, it means just this: "my liver is

Regens The House That

MILITARY COLLEGE HAS ITS CLOSING EXERCISES.

Hon. W. A. Covington, of Moultrie, Delivers Annual Address at Milledgeville.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga., May 30.—The graduating exercises of the Georgia Military college took place in the college chapel Tuesday morning. The annual oration, the awarding of medals and the presentation of certificates made up the program.

Hon. W. A. Covington, of Moultrie, delivered the oration. He was gracefully introduced by Hon. E. R. Hines. Mr. Covington is one of Georgia's most brilliant sons, and is a member of the lower house of the general assembly, where he has won the reputation of being a polished orator. His speech on this occasion was an unusually fine production, and was counted as one of the best ever delivered.

The medals were delivered by Rev. Lamar Sims, in a short and happy speech. Miss Helen Maxwell was awarded the medal for the best recitation and Sergeant Paul M. Foster for the best declamation. Miss Bessie Richardson was given a medal for the best record in the musical department. The certificates to the members of the graduating class by Pres. W. E. Reynolds. The graduating class was made up entirely of young men. They are: Lieut. Fort Andrews, Lieut. Robert DeWitt Duke, Major Wilcox Ashbury Davis, Lieut. John Wilbur Finney, Capt. Ernest Edwin Hill, Lieut. Emmett Booker Lozenby, Lieut. John Alexander Maddox, Lieut. and Adj. John Edmond White, Capt. Robert Cosby Winter.

On Tuesday afternoon the company competitive drills took place on the G. M. campus. Intense interest has been felt in these contests and excitement reigned supreme. For several weeks Companies A and B have drilled hard, and every cadet was determined to do his part in bringing success to his company. At the conclusion of these drills there was a dress parade, and the orders were published and the prizes were delivered. Company B was declared by the judges to be the best drilled company, and Capt. Ernest Edwin Hill, the captain of Company B, the best drilled captain, and was presented with a handsome sword. The squad drill of Company A was the best drilled and Cadet Combs, of Company A, won the individual medal. Cadet Robert Greene, of Company B, coming second in the contest.