

JUNE 5, 1907.

GIRLS' HIGH SCHOOL TO HAVE CLOSING EXERCISES

52 YOUNG LADIES TO RECEIVE DIPLOMAS ON THURSDAY EVEN- ING—INTERESTING PROGRAM.

The graduating exercises of the Girls' High school will be held at the Grand Thursday evening, beginning at 8:15 o'clock. The class is a large one—there are fifty-two who will receive diplomas—and its personnel is one of the most popular in the school's history. The Grand will doubtless be packed with friends of the girls.

A simple, yet highly interesting, program has been arranged, consisting mainly of music, vocal and instrumental selections, and of essays by the graduates. This program and a roster of the graduates follows:

The Program.

Prayer—Class.

Chorus, "Oh, Hail Ye the Winds" (Verde)—Class.

Essay, "Education"—Margaret Nutting, L. C.

Semi-Chorus, (a) "Lovely Rose" (C. B. Rich); Violin Obligato, Mary Robinson. (b) "The Crown of Gold" (from the German.)

Essay, "A Modern Miracle"—Lilla Thurman, C. C.

Vocal Solo, "Dreamland"—Lanora Hardman, L. C.

Chorus, "Revel of the Leaves" (G. A. Veazle)—Class.

Essay, "Atlanta's Schools"—Hazel Stevenson, L. C.

Chorus, "O Rosebud Garland of Girls" (Cirillo)—Class.

Presentation of Diplomas—L. Z. Rosser, president board of education.

Class March, Leaders—Marguerite Miller, Mary Robinson, Elsa Stahl, Minto Denise.

List of Graduates.

Those who will receive diplomas are:

Dora Adair, Tommie Barker, Mary L. Browne, Jessie Carson, Catherine Craig, Gussie Crumley, Alma Edlemann, Florence Fox, Muriel Russell Hall, Angie Harding, Lanora Hardman, Fanny D. Hinton, Ruth Hodnett, May Henderson, Lomar Jeter, Imogen Kane, Isabel Kuhrt, Vivien Marsh, Marguerite Miller, Genevieve Morris, Marian Morris, Nell Parks, Ethel Reid, Mary Robinson, Shirley C. Smith, Nellie M. Albert, Samuel Askey, Irene Bearden, Alma Curtis, Sara Lee Evans, Josephine Garrett, Odessa Greer, Ione Hanson, Jessie Hill, Mary Holcomb, Helen Isham, Lillian Lathrop, Marie Love, Lillie Lovette, Esther Lyon, Margaret Nutting, Nellie Orr, Daisy Patterson, Mae Richardson, Marie Riley, Hannah Sells, Louise Solons, Hazel Stevenson, Ethel Thomas, Edith Watts, Laura Wyatt.