

SEVEN GRADY NURSES WHO RECEIVED DIPLOMAS

CLASS OF 1907 OF GRADY HOSPITAL.

Reading from left to right, top row: Miss Cora Robinson, Miss Etta Hitt, Miss Maude Gullledge.

Bottom row: Miss Leonora Whitaker, Mrs. Lily Mills Pickett, Miss Ruby Lee Fox and Miss Lilly Douglas.

Graduating exercises of the Grady hospital training school for nurses here held Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Seven young women were given diplomas at that time.

Those who graduated were: Miss Cora Robinson, of Wetzel, Ala.; Miss Etta Hitt, of Abbeville, S. C.; Miss Lilly Douglas, of Atlanta; Miss Maude Gullledge, of Wadesboro, N. C.; Miss Ruby Lee Fox, of Lumber City, Ga.; Mrs. Lily Mills Pickett, of Lawrenceville, Ga., and Miss Leonora Whitaker, of Hendersonville, N. C.

The following is the program arranged for the occasion by Mrs. A. M. Waddell, superintendent of nurses:

Music.

Prayer—Rev. Charles C. Jarrell.

Music.

Address to Graduating Class—Dr. Dunbar Roy.

Music.

Presentation of Diplomas—Hon. E. W. Martin.

Music.

Delivery of Class Pins—Hon. Hugh Dorsey.

Music.

Benediction.