

1141907

le at Auction!

ne 15th, 1907, at 3 P. M.

N THE PREMISES

Auction Mart, Hotel and Lunch Counter

National Stock yards, on the corner of Marietta and Brady streets, and is near to uson's place is the most prominently located of all.

ded to give his entire time to the Real Estate Auction Business, has placed d and its stable capacity of 300 head of stock per day, it has a snug little 10-onveniences and lighted by electricity. In conjunction with same is a nicely

d money from each of these either by running them himself or by renting them buildings, which cost Mr. Ferguson something over $4,000 less than one year erms of one-third cash, the balance in six (6) and twelve (12) months with 7 nts. The party buying the building will assume the lease of the ground, which r 10, 1909.

ED TO RUN 5 YEARS FROM THIS DATE.

e will sell at auction all the furniture, furnishings, vehicles, harness, etc., like $1,000. The furniture is nice and new and offers an opportunity for hotels aply. All will be sold to the highest bidder for cash. We recommend this f Atlanta, who wants to get into this line of business in the right place.
or write to

W. A. FOSTER, Agent, 12 S. Broad St.

DIT

Blue Suits $15 $18

s Shirt Suits $24

Suits $15

Suits $6

are Lowest

gest. Credit Clothiers in the our factory to you through y our prices are 20 per cent
our Credit is Good.

Hats & Shoes

en. Boys & Girls

TECH SENIORS TO ENJOY BANQUET NEXT TUESDAY

No Wine, But Just Plain Chattahoochee and Coffee Will Be the Beverages.

Good fellowship will reign supreme on next Tuesday evening at the New Kimball banquet hall when the senior class of the Georgia School of Technology gathers round the mahogany to enjoy the class banquet.

After ample justice is done to the feast which Mine Host Zimmer has prepared, the toasts will be announced and responded to by the appointed classmen, while fragrant Havanas are being puffed.

Referring to the excellent menu prepared by Manager Zimmer for this occasion brings to mind the fact that a few days ago The Journal published a menu for the class dinner in which wines appeared as one of the items. This was an error, an almost similar menu for another banquet, at which wines were ordered, being unintentionally confused with the Tech menu. Observing the custom which has obtained for years at Tech banquets, no beverages but coffee and Chattahoochee river water will grace the board.

The senior class is composed of the following:

R. M. Angas, B. T. Longino, J. J. Apple, O. H. Longino, B. S. Brown, G. T. Marchmont, C. Corley, L. B. Bann, H. M. Corse, E. F. Murray, W. H. Cowan, J. W. McLarty, F. C. Davies, E. L. Pierce, W. E. Du Pre, C. W. Pittard, L. A. Emerson, M. Epstein, R. A. Riley, G. Haines, T. E. Raht, G. O. Hodgson, G. M. Stout, J. G. Holtzclaw, J. E. Sims, L. R. Jackson, C. N. Thornton, W. H. Johnson, J. M. Trapnell, E. R. Kenner, A. F. Willatowski, A. C. Knight, W. E. Wood, H. H. Leech and A. H. Sparks.

The menu:

Grape Fruit
Green Turtle, aux Quenelles Pimolas
Grilled Lake Trout, au Beurre
Potatoes Pailies

Cucumbers Radishes
Pattie of Sweetbreads, a la Toulouse
Mashed Potatoes French Peas
Roast Quail Sur Canape au Cresson
Mayonnaise of Lettuce and Tomato

COMMENCEMENT AT TECH WILL BE BRILLIANT

FIVE DAYS' PROGRAM OF SOCIAL AND SCHOLASTIC FEATURES COMPLETED—THIRTY-ONE
DENTS GRADUATE.

Preparations for commencement at the Georgia School of Technology have been completed. Beginning Saturday afternoon with a baseball game between the senior class and the faculty, the program will extend through Thursday evening, June 20, at which time 35 graduates will receive diplomas. The time between these dates will be crowded with social and scholastic events. Among them will be the senior class banquet at the New Kimball Tuesday evening, the annual promenade Wednesday evening, an exhibition of shop, mill, foundry and laboratory work Thursday morning and the meeting of the board of trustees on the same day.

The feature of Thursday will be the presentation to the School of Technology by Mrs. Richard Peters of a portrait of the Hon. Richard Peters. Bishop C. K. Nelson will make the presentation address in the school chapel and Hon. N. E. Harris, of Macon, president of the board of trustees, will make the response.

The addresses on commencement evening will be made by Hooper Alexander, Chancellor David C. Barrow, of the State university, and N. E. Harris.

The program in full follows:
Commencement exercises, 8:15 p. m., Grand opera house, as follows:

- Music.
- Prayer by Dr. J. S. French.
- Music.
- Announcement of theses.
- Annual Address—Hon. Hooper Alexander.
- Music.
- Address—Chancellor David C. Barrow.
- Delivery of Medals—Associate Justice Marcus W. Beck.
- Music.
- Degrees Conferred—President K. G. Matheson.
- Closing Address to Graduates—Hon. N. E. Harris.
- Benediction—Dr. J. S. French.
- Alumni banquet at 10:30 p. m.

The following young men are members of the senior class:

Mechanical engineering: Robert Moore Angas, Frank Crossland Davies, Max Epstein, Garrard Haines, Lewis Rhodes Jackson, Walter Howard Johnson, Ernest Rodham Kenner, Hugh Hiram Leech, Ethan Frank Murray, John Moore Trapnell.

Electrical engineering: Jack Joseph Apple, Herbert Montgomery Corse, William Horace Cowan, Walter Eugene Dupre, George Oscar Hodgson, Jack Gilbert Holtzclaw, Berryman Thomas Longino, Clin Harrington Longino, George Terry Marchmont, John Wilson McLarty, Emory Lowe Pierce, Charles Warren Pittard, Robert Addison Riley, Gilbert Morris Stout, Andrew Horace Sparks, Arnold Willatowski, Clark Norris Thornton, John Ernest Sims, William Elliott Wood.

Civil engineering: Lewis Azro Emerson, Aaron Collins Knight, Lester Bradwell Mann.

Textile engineering: Clifton Corley, Theodore Eckhardt Raht.

Engineering chemistry: Brian Sperry Brown.

GEORGIA DAY WAS A GREAT SUCCESS