

WASHINGTON SEMINARY GIRLS GRADUATE

The twenty-ninth commencement of the Washington Seminary will take place this evening at the Grand opera house, the address to the graduating class to be made by Dr. S. R. Belk, pastor of St. Mark church.

The D. A. R. medal, offered by the Atlanta chapter, in memory of Mrs. Alice E. Chandler, to a member of the senior class for the best essay on the general theme: "Women of the American Revolution," was won this year by Miss Josephine Stoney. The medal will be presented by Mr. William Hurd Hillyer.

The boxes will be occupied by the officers of the Atlanta D. A. R. chapter and by the freshman, sophomore and junior classes, the boxes to be beautifully decorated in the different class colors.

A specially interesting feature of the commencement will be the chorus singing with about 150 girls in the chorus and an orchestra, conducted by Professor J. Fowler Richardson.

The program will be:

Prayer.

Overture, by orchestra.

Chorus, "Land of Hope and Glory," Elgar—Miss Frances Stark and chorus.

Address by Dr. S. R. Belk.

Chorus, "Eventide," Marzials.

Presentation of D. A. R. medal by Mr. William Hurd Hillyer.

Delivery of diplomas by Mr. L. D. Scott.
