

WESLEYAN COLLEGE HAS GRADUATING EXERCISES

DIPLOMAS AND MEDALS ARE AWARDED TO MANY STUDENTS AT AUDITORIUM.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

MACON, Ga., May 30.—Wesleyan college closed for the year yesterday after a very successful term. The graduating exercises were unusually interesting and attracted a great deal of attention. The college auditorium was crowded with friends and relatives of the graduates. The address of President Guerry in presenting the diplomas to the young ladies was very touching and brought tears to the eyes of many.

The members of the graduating class are as follows:

Miss Mary Balkeom, Macon, Ga.; Miss Sarah E. Branham, Oxford, Ga.; Miss Mattie Chappell, Macon, Ga.; Miss Blanche L. Chapman, Quitman, Ga.; Miss Rhoda Cheves, Villa Rica, Ga.; Miss Julia Fletcher Coney, Hawkinsville, Ga.; Miss Inez Daughtry, Jackson, Ga.; Miss Willie Ellis, Macon, Ga.; Miss Annie England, Conyers, Ga.; Miss Willie Woodson Erminger, Vienna, Ga.; Miss Maude Bacon Fisher, Eastman, Ga.; Miss Vernon Horn, Boston, Ga.; Miss Theodosia Hughes, Macon, Ga.; Miss Agnes Lynn Jones, Duluth, Ga.; Miss Nannaline King, Gainesville, Ga.; Miss Ella Clare McKellar, Americus, Ga.; Miss Elizabeth Moseley, Union Springs, Ala.; Miss Jane Moss, Tignall, Ga.; Miss Claire Munroe, Quincy, Fla.; Miss Tatum Pope, Macon, Ga.; Miss Alice Taylor, Cochran, Ga.; Miss Caro Twitty, Pelham, Ga.; Miss Lucy Twitty, Valdosta, Ga.

The young ladies who won the different medals are as follows:

The elocution medal was won by Miss Regina Rambo, of Marietta. The scholarship medal was won by Miss Bettie Low White, of Newnan. Miss Adel Sally, of Orangeburg, S. C., won the medals for painting and piano. Miss Annie England, of Conyers, won the Dr. M. A. Clarke medal for efficiency in the study of physiology. Miss Nannaline King, of Gainesville, won the medal for drawing.

Miss Maud Fisher, of Macon, won the senior class medal.

Miss Hopkins, of LaGrange, won the junior class medal.

Miss Susie Leonard, of Talbotton, won the sophomore class medal. The freshman class medal was won by Miss Susie Mae Green, of Montezuma.

BESSIE TIFT COLLEGE