

5/26/1907

THE ATLANTA JOURNAL.

OF WOMEN AND SOCIETY

MISS MARGUERITE CHAFFEE.

Miss Chaffee has just returned from Brenau College Conservatory, where she has taken her B. L. degree and diploma in oratory at that institution. She is also a musician of marked ability.

VALDOSTA SOCIAL NEWS.

VALDOSTA.—Mrs. J. E. Massey gave a beautiful porch party Tuesday afternoon at her pretty home on Patterson street. It was given in honor of Miss Mary Flanders, of Macon. On the broad veranda the card tables were prettily arranged, while on one side a punch bowl was placed on a smaller table and a delicious drink was served during the evening by Mrs. Hagland. A color scheme of green and white was carried out in detail. A club and interesting game of bridge was played and the first prize was won on a cut by Mrs. Ruth Candlish. The prize was an exquisite hand-painted spangled fan. The booby, who was a tiny deck of domino cards, was won by Miss Habelle Varnedoe. Mrs. Massey was assisted in entertaining by her mother, Mrs. O. M. Grady, of Macon, and Mrs. James Johnson, of this city.

The home of Mrs. E. A. Foster on Hill street was the scene of a quiet marriage Wednesday morning, the contracting parties being Miss Dora Foster and Mr. O. F. Criss. The ceremony being performed by Rev. M. Morgan. It was witnessed by only the immediate relatives and the announcement was a surprise to their large number of friends here. The couple left immediately for Mobile and Frankston, Texas, where they will spend some time before returning to Valdosta. Miss Criss is an exceedingly pretty young woman and has made many friends here. She came to this city from Fernandina about two years ago. The groom is the cashier for the Atlantic Coast Line at this place, and is well known and popular throughout this section.

The family of Mr. B. G. Lastinger went to Adel Wednesday to witness the marriage of Mr. James Lastinger to Miss Addie Frances Booth, at the Methodist church there. The wedding was one of the social events of the season at Adel.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Fender have returned to the city from Richmond, Va., where they attended the Southern Baptist convention. Mrs. F. S. Harrell has gone to Birmingham, Ala., on a visit to her sister.

Misses Katharina and Almarina Lane have returned from Winston-Salem, N. C., where they have been attending the seminary that place.

Mrs. J. B. Myddleton and her sister, Mrs. Maybelle Hodges, have gone to White Springs to spend a week or two.

Mrs. T. B. Duckett and son, of Perry, Fla., are visiting the family of Mrs. J. E. Thompson.

Miss Sarah?

In Macon Tuesday

Mrs. J. E.

week for Cle

mer with Mrs.

A. L. Smith.

Mr. and M

in this city f tigham, who

and then go

Mrs. T. G.

son, Fla., to

Misses Ed

turned from have been a

Mrs. A. I

been spendi

Mr. Young.

Colonel A.

South Carolina in visit

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Johnson, of St. Paul,

Fla., spent a few days this week in Val dosta. They will spend the summer at th home in North Carolina.

Miss Nellie Shaw left this week for Atla