

WINGATE BATTLE WINS MEDAL FOR BEST ESSAY

MARIST COLLEGE STUDENT SUB-
MITS THE BEST PAPER TO U.
D. C. ON CONFEDERATE
NAVY.

WINGATE BATTLE.

Winner of Medal For Best Essay on Confederate Navy.

The medal offered by the Atlanta chapter Daughters of the Confederacy for the best essay on "The Confederate Navy in the War Between the States," open to all white children in Fulton county, has just been decided by the medal committee and Mrs. Howard H. McCall, chairman, makes formal announcement of the winner.

Wingate Battle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Battle, of North avenue, and one of the brightest students of Marist college, has been declared winner and it was officially announced to the U. D. C. at the meeting Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Edward G. Warner, president of the Atlanta chapter, will present the medal to this fortunate young man, who is well worthy of all honors bestowed upon him, at the closing exercises of Marist college.
