

COLLEGE GRADUATES ARE GIVEN DEGREES

FORTY-FIVE YOUNG MEN RE- CEIVE DIPLOMAS AT UNIVER- SITY OF GEORGIA—VARIOUS DEGREES CONFERRED.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

ATHENS, Ga., June 17.—Following is the list of the forty-five University of Georgia graduates, with their degrees.

The law class graduates have been previously announced:

Master of Science

Cornellus Augustus Wells, Cornella.

Bachelor of Arts

Allen Hamilton Bunce, Statesboro; James Samuel Bussey, Augusta; John Alexander, Comer; Winnie Thomas Edgerton, Atlanta; Luther Frary Elrod, Jefferson; John William Fitts, LaGrange; John Burke Harris, Macon; Wylie Clayton Henson, Sugar Valley; William Saunders Jones, Atlanta; Oel Heldt Langford, Fort Lamar; Abram Luther Lloyd, Newborn; Milton Randolph Lufburrow, Oliver; John Howard .elsler, Atlanta; Samuel Thurmond Oliver, Elberton; Harold Erwin Reynolds, Lexington; William Arthur Shelton, Acacirsville; Harry Richmond Slack, LaGrange; William Franklin Slaton, Atlanta; Sidney Oslin Smith, Gainesville; William Telford Turk, Homer; Guy Oslin Whelchel, Comer; Frank Bartow Willingham, Forsyth.

Bachelor of Science, General

Robert Oliver Arnold, Hampton; Ray Welborn Blackman, Columbus; Mercer Blanchard, Columbus; Clifford Cleveland Brooks, Lexington; Clement Sydney Bryan, Athens; Henry Grady Cannon, Win-der; Jackson Porter Dick, Marietta; James Wesley Florence, Odessadale; John Allen Fort, Americus; Stanley Matthews Gates, Atlanta; Alphonso I. Ivey, Union Point; Samuel Emerson Morton, Gray; Floyd Childs Newton, Madison; George P. Swift, Columbus; Percy Heard Thornton, Union Point.

Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineer- ing

DeWitt Talmadge Hubbard, Flowery Branch; William Rutherford Hutchins, Athens; Geronimo Way Wing, Cusseta.

Bachelor of Science in Electrical En- gineering

Fred Nickerson Grant, Athens; Stafford Montgomery, Rome; Walter Ellison Stone, Athens; Edmund Byne Walker, Madison.

NEW PROFESSOR NAMED AT ATHENS

Prof. J. L. Henderson will be the