

OWL TOWN SCHOOL 1914

This school, later called Oak Hill School, stood just off Highway 52 of today.

Front row (left to right): Leonard Martin; Orlando Martin; Homer Henson; Truman Holt; Frank Chadwick; Sam Thompson; Ina Weaver; Jim Hall; Ernest Rogers; Harold Rogers; Carl Rogers; Ona Thompson; Sam Thompson; Sally Chadwick; Lillie Weaver; Austin Whitaker; Willard Ellington.

Second row (left to right): Dewey Whitaker; Marvin Chadwick; Ben Ellington; Hill Burrell; Clay Waddell; Steve Cloninger; Belle Weaver; Miss Winfred Hudson, a teacher; Carrie Brown; Sarah Rogers; Will Henson; in arms of Will Henson, Hobert Henson; Clement Chadwick; Holly Chadwick; a little out of the line, Hattie Thompson; Eunece Holt; Gladys Chadwick; Ida Hall; Florence Rogers; Laura Burrell; Mollie Henson; Carrie Weaver; Bonnie Farrest; Doshia Hughes.

Behind the second row (left to right): Frank Holt; Homer Weaver; Charlie Jones; Harvie Weaver.

Third row (left to right): Reed Waddell; Paul Martin; Rob Holt; Robert Parks; Azalee Whitaker; Reed Henson; Annie Chadwick; Mattie Thompson; Esther Cloninger; Myrtle Henson; Dester Burrell; Flossie Kinser; Flora Chadwick; Fred Holt; Miss Millie Powell, teacher; Will Chadwick; Pearl Henson; Etta Parks.

Persons who assisted in the identification of the 63 people shown in this old photograph were: Mrs. C.F. Owen, Mrs. Mollie (Henson) Barclay, Mrs. Clyde Jones, Miss Winfred Hudson and Mrs. Fred Holt (Annie Chadwick).