

Special Program for St. Paul's Sabbath School Is Arranged

A special program for the St. Paul's Sunday school has been arranged for Sunday in Grant Park Masonic temple for the Men's Community Bible class and visitors, by Mrs. Caroline Murphey, John A. Boykin and D. L. Shannon, according to an announcement Friday.

Mrs. Caroline Murphey is the great-granddaughter of Dr. William Bullen Johnson, who rode horseback from Virginia to Augusta, Ga., early in the eighteenth century, and organized the Southern Baptist society.

A duet by Mrs. Caroline Murphey and Mrs. G. G. Thomas, accompanied by Miss Vivian Russell, "Come Unto Me All Ye That Labor and Are Heavy Laden, and I Will Give You Rest," from "The Messiah," by Handel, will be one of the features of the program.

The remainder of the program will include a solo by Mrs. G. G. Thomas, contralto, and a solo by Mrs. Murphey, soprano.

Following the song service, Solicitor Boykin will address the meeting on "The Rising Tide of Crime."

High School Night At St. Paul's Church

High school night will be observed at the Sunday evening service, beginning at 8 o'clock, at St. Paul's Methodist church, with Hoke Smith Junior High school orchestra and male quartet assisting in the musical program.

The Rev. L. Wilkie Collins, pastor, will preach on "Life's First Prizes." His sermon subject for the morning service, at 11 o'clock, will be "Methodism on the March."

Solicitor John A. Boykin will address the Men's class at 9:30 o'clock in the morning at the Masonic temple.
