

Junior High Typewriting Champion

THIS TEAM SHOWN BELOW REPRESENTED THE JOSEPH E. BROWN JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL in the recent city-wide typewriting contest and was awarded the championship. The test lasted fifteen minutes. The members of the team are: Misses Mae Dill Quillian, Mildred DeLoach, Florence Williams, coach; Elizabeth Whittaker and Louise Lance. Miss DeLoach was awarded the individual championship.—Staff photo by Winn.

476 M. A. SENIORS GET DIPLOMAS AT COLLEGE EXERCISES

Forty-seven seniors were awarded diplomas at the graduation exercises of the Georgia Military Academy, which were held in the college auditorium at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, following the annual alumni banquet in the Atlanta Hill more Tuesday evening.

The commencement address was delivered by F. Donald Phillips, of Rockingham, N. C., and the valedictory address was delivered by Edwin McClellan Johnston, of Atlanta.

Maynard B. Smith was elected president of the alumni association at the banquet Tuesday evening. Other officers elected were John W. Zuber, Jr., vice president, and Kendrick L. Scott, secretary and treasurer.

All members of the graduating class were made members of the alumni association. The senior class speakers at the banquet were Captain Albert S. Bacon, of Savannah; Edwin M. Johnston, of Atlanta, and James M. Tuten, of Greenville, S. C. George W. West acted as toastmaster, and the honor guests, all of whom made speeches, were St. Elmo Massengale, Colonel F. W. Rowell, of the Fourth Corps area, and Dean Thomas E. Johnston, of St. Philip's cathedral. Dean Johnston was elected chaplain of the G. M. A. alumni association.

Colonel J. C. Woodward, president of the college, and Colonel John Q. Nash, commandant, addressed the banquet gathering, which was composed of 35 seniors and alumni association members.

Tardy Property Owners Urged to Make Returns

Although the tax books of Fulton county were closed according to law on April 30, Tax Collector William H. Abbot has made arrangements for the large number of property owners who have made no return to get on the digest if they will make their returns at once, he announced Wednesday.

The digest is being made at the tax collector's office now. Mr. Abbot announced, but returns will be incorporated as they are turned in.