

Participants and Directors in Junior High Typewriting Contest

THE WINNERS AND OTHERS WHO TOOK PART IN THE RECENT TYPEWRITING CONTEST BETWEEN REPRESENTATIVES of four Junior high schools, are (left to right), first row: Misses Elizabeth Whitaker, of Hoke Smith school; Louise Lance, of Hoke Smith; Mae Quillian, of Hoke Smith; Louise McDaniels, of Hoke Smith; Evelyn Lyness, of the Joseph E. Brown school; Mildred DeLoach, of Hoke Smith, winner of the individual prize for the contest; Evelyn Smith, of the William A. Bass school, who was near the winner in the one-minute contest; Robert Smith, of Bass; Misses Made Walton, of Bass; Jessie Perry, of Bass; Floyd Humphries, of Bass; Second row: Miss Mildred Roberts, of Hoke Smith; Thomas Mado Brown, of Brown school; Misses Eunice Foster, of Brown; Nellie Smith, of Brown; Evelyn Mayes, of Brown; Anna Isakson, of O'Keefe; Dora Kantor, of O'Keefe, who won the one-minute contest; Mae Chastaine, of O'Keefe; Lillian Bradberry, of O'Keefe, who ranked near the winner in the one-minute contest; Evelyn Elliott, of O'Keefe; Third row: Clark Harrison, vice president of the Draughon Business college, who conducted the contest; W. V. Depping, teacher at O'Keefe; Miss Florence Williams, teacher at Hoke Smith; A. M. Weems, of the L. C. Smith Typewriter company; F. E. Nash, of the Remington Typewriter company; N. L. Brady, of the Underwood Typewriter company; Miss Ida Bale, teacher at Bass; L. C. Pittard, of the Royal Typewriter company; Mrs. O. M. Barnett Brown.

