

Twenty-Eighth Annual Commencement Held At Piedmont College

DEMOREST, Ga., June 4.—Wednesday marked the twenty-eighth annual commencement of Piedmont College. The address was delivered by Rev. Marston Stanley Freeman, of Chattanooga, Tenn., on "The Quality of Leadership." The honorary degree of doctor of divinity was conferred on Rev. Freeman at the close of the exercises.

The following received degrees: Irene Gard, White Plains, Ga., B. S.; William L. Brown, Doraville, Ga., Ph. B.; Stella Mae Fricks, Toccoa, Ga., A. B.; Jessie Watkins, Atlanta, Ga., A. B.; James M. Stinecipher, Grandview, Tenn., B. S.; Estelle Reaves, Greer, S. C., expression; Lamar Smith, Clayton, Ga., Ph. B.; Jenna Sue McNeely, Toccoa, Ga., B. S. H. E.; Jesse F. Stinecipher, Grandview, Tenn., B. S.; Joseph Sosby, Carnesville, Ga., Ph. B.; May King, Columbus, Ga., A. B.; Burnie C. Crockett, Carrollton, Ga., Ph. B.

The medal for best work in voice was awarded to Miss Vivien Bryant, Decatur. The oratorical contest medals were won by Miss Otis Adison and Truman M. Pierce.

The enrollment for the year reached 289.

Recovers Eyesight

SAVANNAH, Ga., June 4.—The friends throughout Georgia of Herman Shuptrine will be glad that his son, J. T. Shuptrine, recently went blind, has recovered eyesight as the result of operation in Washington. The news has been received in letters from Shuptrine, who is with his father.

Glynn Commission Chairman

BRUNSWICK, Ga., June 4.—Chairman E. L. Stephen-