

Sacred Heart School Graduation to Be Held on Thursday

The class day exercises of the Sacred Heart school were held Tuesday, June 2, in the Marist college auditorium. The program included three songs, two essays, the class will and poem, two recitations, distributing of parting gifts and an address by the class president, Miss Ann Spalding.

The prizes were then awarded by Father Horton. Sixty certificates were given for perfect attendance during the year. Miss Alice Minahan received a special prize for perfect attendance during the four high school years. Miss Vida O'Neill as the honor graduate having the highest average for the four years.

The Sacred Heart school graduation exercises will be held Thursday, June 4, in the Sacred Heart church. Father J. J. Horton, pastor of the Sacred Heart church, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon. Those to receive diplomas were Miss Ann Spalding, president; Miss Louella Everett, vice president; Miss Alice Minahan, secretary; Miss Emily Bacon, treasurer, Miss Margaret Brooks, Miss Lois Hopkins, Miss Mary Kadlec, Miss Gertrude Minahan, Miss Elizabeth O'Neill, Miss Vida O'Neill, Miss Dorothy Redmond, Miss Freda Smith, Miss Josephine Smith and Miss Anna Belle Stewart.