TECH commencement is now in full swing and the dances are among the outstanding social events of the season. The presence of many lovely visitors add to the brilliant season.

Saturday evening the Sophomore American dance was given in the Tech gymnasium.

The gymnasium where the commencement dances are being held was elaborately decorated, representing a Japanese scene, with the Tech colors, yellow and white, predominating.

Yellow bunting with white fringe hung at regular intervals from the ceiling and between each row of bunting hung large Japanese lanterns hanging from these were brilliant colored lighted lanterns. The entire outer edge of the ballroom was outlined with decorations of large Japanese umbrellas. The grand march was led by Miss Martha Worth Rogers and Mr. Sam Murray and Miss Suzette Heath and Mr. Howard Becknell.

The chaperons included Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Brittain, Dr. and Mrs. W. V. Skiles, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Orme, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ashcraft, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Raine, Mr. and Mrs. George Street, Mrs. Charles Northern, Mrs. Ed Van Winkle, and Professor and Mrs. A. H. Armstrong.
