

Vidalia Institute To Award Diplomas To Largest Class

VIDALIA, Ga., May 21.—On Tuesday, June 2, the largest class in the history of the Vidalia Collegiate Institute will receive their diplomas, the graduating exercises which will have occupied a week's activities reaching conclusion on that date.

The class of seniors this year is composed of 21 pupils, a third of whom are boys. The roster of the class this season includes the following: Misses Tressa Mae Shuman, Mabel Pauline Bobbitt, Norma Lou Oliver, Yeteva McIntyre, Marjorie Whitehead, Kate Ruth Neal, Elizabeth Hudson, Reta Todd, Evelyn Wilder, Johnnie Gay, Winnie Mae Barker, Kate Clyne Moseley, Sadie Todd, Frances Estelle Frederick, and Messrs. Henry Asa Wiggs, Frank Anderson, Spencer McBride, Franklin Rabun, Oren Coleman, Prentise Courson and S. D. Morris, Jr.

According to the plans, Friday, May 26th will be class day, which will be celebrated on the campus in the afternoon and in the auditorium with a program in the evening. The baccalaureate sermon will be delivered on Sunday, May 31, at the city auditorium by Rev. H. C. Howard, of Emory university. The class play, "Breezy Point" will be tendered on Monday evening, June 1 and the graduating exercises and diploma presentation will take place on Tuesday, June 2, at the city auditorium.

Can't Resist Impulse To Kiss Pretty Girls, So He's in Hospital

NEW YORK, May 21.—(By Associated Press)—Henry Clay Moffat, Brooklyn's man of mysterious impulse who gives jewels away and admits he never sees a pretty girl without wanting to kiss her, is in hospital.