"JUNIOR PROM" USHERS IN COMMENCEMENT FESTIVITIES

ONE of the most brilliant events of the social season which is always looked forward to with keen anticipation throughout the south was the annual Tech Junior prom, sponsored by the interfraternity council which was given Thursday evening in the Tech gymnasium.

This is the first year the dances have been held in the gymnasium, which was elaborately decorated, representing a Japanese scene, with the Tech colors, yellow and white, predominating.

Yellow bunting with white fringe hung at regular intervals from the ceiling and between each row of bunting, hung large Japanese lanterns hanging from these were brilliant colored lighted lanterns.

Open out from the dance hall was a pretty garden where punch was served, the garden also being in Japanese effect.
