

Girls' High Student Body Heads

MISS MARY TUCKER (LEFT) AND MISS MARY BRISCOE BROUGHTON, who were recently elected presidents of the Mallon society and the student government, respectively, of the Girls' High school, for the next scholastic year.—Staff photo by Winn.

Miss Mary Tucker, of 54 Arlington street, and Miss Mary Briscoe Broughton, of 106 West Twelfth street, were recently elected presidents of the Mallon society and the Student government, respectively, of the Girls' High school, for the next scholastic year, it is announced.

As president of the Mallon society,

Miss Tucker will preside at all meetings of the student body, and among her many other duties will introduce visiting speakers.

Miss Broughton, it is announced, is the second student in the history of the school unanimously elected as president of the Student government, which has charge of hearing and adjusting differences of the students.