

Tucker of Virginia. North Carolina & Georgia

Traced by Jeannette Holland Austin

Captain William Tucker was born 1589 in England according to Hotten's List and came to Virginia in 1610. He was a Member of the House of Burgesses from 1623 to 1624, appointed to the Council March 4, 1626 and was first Justice in Elizabeth City in 1632. He was one of the greatest Merchants of his time in Virginia. According to the deeds in Prince George County, his grandson, Robert Tucker, was also a Merchant and Attorney, handling the affairs of persons in London, to Virginia. In the Census of 1625, William's wife, Mary Thompson, born 1599, came to Virginia in 1623 and they then had one child, Elizabeth, born in Virginia. Mary's brothers were Maurice, George, Paul and William Thompson. Further proving that he married Mary Thompson, from the Visitation of London taken in 1568, the Genealogy of Robert Thomson of Watton in Herefordshire who married Elizabeth, the daughter of Mr. Halfhead of Watton in Hertfordshire. Their children: Mary, who married William Tucker of London, Merchant. "They had a daughter, Mary." Elizabeth Thomson who married Francis Stuke of Stapleford in Com. Herefordshire; Dennis, who married Elias Roberts in London, Merchant, and Anna Thomson.

Captain William Tucker married second a wife by the name of Frances, who was named in his Last Will and Testament dated October 12, 1642, probated February 17, 1644, being "of the Cittie of London" (endorsed St. Dunstons in the East), William Tucker, Esquire, "now bound for the Kingdom of Ireland." To his wife, Frances, he bequeathed 1000 pounds. The remainder of his rstate was divided into three parts to his children, viz. William, Thomas and Mary (together with a cabbinet of mother of pearls embossed with silver gilt knobbes and one standing cupp with cover of mother of pearl with a silver guilt handle and cover for her own use). The latter bequest went to his daughter, Mary. If Mary died before age 21 or married, then her third share, the cabinnet, etc., was to go to sons, William and Thomas. Should all die, to go to the children of brother, Thomas Tucker, then living. If wife died before his return from Ireland, the whole estate to go to his three children if alive. "For my lands in Virginia I bequeath unto my son, William Tucker, to enjoy by him and his heirs forever, which is for my Adventure of 50 pounds as billes of Adventure may appear, I have transported divers servants thither which for every servant I am to have 50 acres of land, my first dividend which will amount unto 3000 acres for the first dividend, 3000 acres for the second dividend, and 3000 acres for the third, which land may prove beneficial in time to my heir, the record books in Virginia will prove the number of men I have transported thither." Peculiar the Archives, File 1643.

William Tucker was listed as a Member of the Council assembled July 30, 1619 (Colonial Register).

Also, assembled March 5, he was a Member, 1623 and 1624.

From Colonial Surry: "Whereupon Captain William Tucker was commissioned to immediately levy upon every twentieth man and not to take newcomers but able and sufficiently seasoned men from twenty years up to forth-five. Two years later entries in the company's records deal with the building of this fort in Warriscoyock (Isle of Wight Co.), so there is no question that the fort was built in that county and not in Surry as has been supposed."

(1623) "Surry people by the Council in January Court 1622–31. At the said Court Anne Cooper, wife of Justinian of Isle of Wight, complained that her late husband, James Harrison, did lend a shallop to it.

George Harrison, deceased, which boat she had otten demanded of the said Lt. but never could get sattisfaction. That Ensign Harrison did lend the shallop to Lt. George Harrison was proved by the testimony of Capt. Ralph Hamar and Captain Tucker."

"At this Court Mrs. Alice Boyse brought an account of cattle in controversy between Captain John Martin and Captain John Bargrave and desired to give them up as she was unable to give security for same. Whereupon, Captain William Tucker, in behalf of Mrs. Bargrave, her kinswoman, the wife of Captain Bargrave, desired to give security."

(g) Daniel Tucker died 1804

Wilkes Co., Ga. Daniel Tucker left Virginia, migrating to North Carolina about 1760, to Onslow County, finally removing to Wilkes Co., Ga. Where he died in 1804. In his Last Will and Testament dated September 27, 1803, probated March 13, 1804, Wilkes Co. Will Book 1806-8, page 23, he named Sarah Tucker, the daughter of Thomas Tucker.

His property was to be divided between Sarah Tucker, the daughter of Thomas Tucker, and Sarah, the wife of Daniel Tucker. William Ashmore and John Lynn were executors of the estate. Sarah gave her receipt for her part of her husband's estate and of John Chapman, in right of his wife, Sarah, who both signed February 8, 1806. Daniel Tucker had two draws in the 1803 Wilkes Co. Land Lottery. Issue.

1. Daniel Tucker, born 2/14/1740 in Amelia Co., Virginia, died 1818. ***He was in Wake Co., N. C. According to 1790 Census. His Last Will and Testament headed up "Wake County, North Carolina" probated in Elbert Co., Ga., named his wife, Frances (1750–1823). Rev. Dan Tucker owned many acres of land on the Savannah River, as well as Tucker's Ferry across the river into South Carolina. Historical Marker at the Old Tucker Ferry in Elbert County tells us that he "did not die with the toothache in his heel." According to McCall's Roster of the Revolution, their children were: Ethel, Gabriel, Daniel, Robert, Eppes, Susan, Frances, Reuben (d. Sumter Co., Ga.) and Shem. Shem's wife was Jude T. Tucker (1795–1822)

2. Thomas Tucker b. 1745/50 Amelia Co., Virginia, died Wilkes Co., Ga. December of 1821, when his Last Will and Testament was probated. He married Elizabeth Ashmore, born December 29, 1761, the daughter of Bridget and Frederick Ashmore, who were still in Virginia in 1776, but who removed to Lincoln Co., Georgia. To further corroborate that Thomas Tucker was a son of Daniel, there is a Revolutionary War Pension of George Tucker which states that he left Virginia and removed to Onslow Co., N. C. As a young man, and then went with "his brother" to Georgia (prior to the Revolution).
