I, Quincy F. Neal do on this 22nd March 1892 make ^{and} declare the following to be ^{and} contain my last will & testament in form following:

Item 1st,

I hereby constitute ^{and} appoint my wife Adelaisa, my sole executrix to this my last will & testament, ^{and} I hereby devise & direct that she shall have the free use & full control ^{of} management of all my estate, property & rights of whatever kind or description, which I now have or which I may hereafter acquire, for ^{the} during the term of her natural life, for her sole use ^{and} benefit, failing assured she will manage the same prudently & with the purpose of advancing the interests of our children (including the two representatives of my deceased son, Arthur) which I wish to share equally in the remainder.

As my son Jno F. Neal has chosen to remain with us & to take care of us in our old age, I will ^{and} devise, that after the death of his mother, he, the said John F. Neal shall have the home tract of land with the appurtenances, in fee simple, said to contain about 200 acres but he must pay the other children so as to make them all equal with himself. And to that end I price the land to John at three thousand dollars, at which sum he may take the land, ^{and} account to the other children, without interest, in the final settlement of the estate.

Item 2nd,

After the death of my wife, whatever remains of my estate I wish divided equally among all my children, to wit H. A. Neal, J. O. B. Neal, Mattie A. Scott, Jno F. Neal (^{and} Arthur two boys, Alley & Arthur taking one share) Subject to the provision contained in 2nd Item in this will. But from the shares of each of the foregoing, three must be deducted the advancements heretofore ^{and} hereafter to be made to said children, ^{and} added to those not so much advanced ^{and} a statement will be herewith filed showing the amount of said advancements.

As my wife is wholly ignorant of all legal forms, & I desire to relieve her of all trouble as far as possible, I hereby direct & request that she shall not be required to return any inventory

Item 4th
