

George Clamfetti. Will.

March the first day 1885

In the name of God Amen whereas I am now in sound health and in my proper mind and memory and having called to mind the certainty of death I therefore make this my last last will and Testament.

Firstly I will my spirit unto God who gave it and my body to be buried decently in my grave.
Secondly I will my house and home and sixty acres of land where my house and improvement is on, my mare and one cow, six head of sheep, and all my hogs and all my farming tools, and all my household property to my well beloved wife Ann by her freely to possess for and ~~during~~ enjoy for and during her lifetime.

Thirdly I will that my beloved son George shall have the above described land and property above described with the increase accruing there from or so much as may be left after the death of his mother and not before her death.

Fourthly I will that my beloved son Richard shall have forty acres of my land on the upper part of my tract on the wolf pits Ridge by him to possess and enjoy from this present date.
