Last will and testament of Jacob Hoomes.

North Carolina Dec. 25th 1886.

Ashe County In the name of God Amen.

I Jacob Hoomes being weak of body but of sound mind and desiring memory and considering the uncertainty of this frail and transitory life and the certainty of death, and that I may be the better prepared touching my worldly affairs when God shall call me hence. I make, desire, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament annulling and making void all and writings in the nature of wills by me heretofore made. My will is that after my death my body shall have a decent Christian burial without parade or unnecessary expence, and that the expenses of the same with all my just debts be paid by my executors.

2. My will is that my beloved wife Alva Hoomes shall have her dower in the lands which I now have during her natural life. To be allotted to her by Commissioners appointed for that purpose, my will is that the dower of my beloved wife after her death be sold and divided equally among all my heirs. My will is that the lands on which I now live not inherited in the dower of my wife be sold at public sale and the proceeds thereof be equally divided between my three daughters to wit Amanda Burkett & Catharine Long & Melinda Ticknor. My will is that all my personal property that I may be possessed of at my death be sold at public sale, and that the proceeds thereof be equally divided between my wife Alva Hoomes and my three daughters heretofore named share and share alike. My will is that my son John Hoomes have the lands heretofore given to him by me and which he now has in possession. My will is that my son Hamilton Hoomes have the lands heretofore given to him by me and for which he holds a deed made by me to him and the boundary of which are fully set forth in said deed. My will is that my undivided household and kitchen furniture be sold at public sale and the proceeds equally divided among my three daughters, and I appoint my trusty friend J. L. Woodward to execute this my last will and testament. Witness my hand and seal of this my marriage after I am gone this signature is no more in home nor country here

Last will and testament of J.
Mark Hardin

I Mark Hardin of Ashe County North Carolina being of sound mind and memory, but feeble in health and knowing the uncertainty of this life, and being desirous of disposing of my property after my death, do make and retain this my last will and testament in manner and form following, that is to say,

I will that all my just debts be paid if I should die any at my death. I will that my beloved wife have all my property of every description as long as she remains my widow, and at her death or marriage I will that my youngest son Fields J. Hardin have the land and all the other property except as much of the personal property as will make the young child equal with those who are married. I want Fields to live with his mother and help her and help take care of the girls as long as they live with their mother, and when they marry if they do, I want my beloved wife to give them for housekeeping either the other girl. I hereby appoint my brother Martin Hardin Executor of this my last will and testament, this August 10th 1885.

Signed in the presence of us who witnessed the same in his present.
