

James Brown's Will

In the name of God Amen. I James Brown being weak in body but sound in mind and memory thanks be to god. I do this day make and publish this my last will & Testament having heretofore made a deed to my two sons. Martin Brown & Gibson Brown & their heirs. Gibson Brown having died without an heir my will is therefore that Martin Brown & his heirs shall have all the land and every part thereof. It being my intention at the time I executed said deed that if either of them should die without heirs that the other one and his heirs should hold and possess the same, and I hereby appoint and constitute my son Martin Executor to this my last will & Testament. and I do say & testify that none of my other heirs is to have any of said land so deeded or any part thereof. I have here unto set my hand and seal in presence of us March 31st day 1850.
