

Thompson, the said Rebecca Rudy, by the oath and examination of W. M. Kirkpatrick and J. L. Pratt, the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn depose and say and each for himself depose with an oath, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him purporting to be the last will and testament of Rebecca Rudy that the said Rebecca Rudy in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing which is now shown as aforesaid and which bears date of the 26th day of Feb'y 1889.

And the deponent further saith that the said Rebecca Rudy, the testatrix aforesaid, died at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper writing to be subscribed by her and exhibiting to both the said Kirkpatrick and Thompson and the deponent did Thompson subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto and at the request and in the presence of said testatrix and the deponent further saith that at the same time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last will as aforesaid and at the time of this deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Rebecca Rudy was of sound mind and memory of full age and her acts are in accordance with her own free will and she knew and understood the contents of this deponent's examination and belief of this deponent's own facts and the deponent's own facts.

W. M. Kirkpatrick

J. L. Pratt

Subscribed and sworn to as above

This 4th day of March 1901. before me,

Chas. C. Nelson, Notary Public

North Platte, Neb.
County of _____ ss. In the Superior Court

It is the report and recommendation of the County Clerk that the said paper writing and the facts therein are the last will and testament of Rebecca Rudy deceased.
At the said City of North Platte, Nebraska, this 4th day of March, 1901.

W. C. Nelson,
Notary Public

Now account by this present that I James A. Miller of the County of _____ State of Nebraska being of sound mind and judgment have this day made a lawful will and testament. Margarette Miller, my wife, all of my real and personal property which is in the name of said husband and I have power to sell private any or all of my personal property and apply the proceeds to the discharge of my just debts. I also have power to execute any deed coming to me until she has paid all of my just debts. I now wish to have one third of all my real estate and one third of all my personal property which she is to hold during her lifetime then to go to my lawful heirs provided she does not marry, but in case she does marry then she is not to sell any personal property without the consent of my Executors or have any lands cultivated that would be likely to damage the farm without the consent of my Executors. Now I want my estate to be divided equally between all of my children to-wit John A. Miller, Charles E. Miller, Luther A. Miller, Phyllis Miller, Mary Miller, Henry M. Miller & Mabel J. Miller.

I want my wife with the consent of my Ex to control any and all of the children's parts which are minor until they become of age or marry then they are to control their own parts. Now I want my children to have their parts that is now of age & become of age by the time all of my just debts are paid which I have given my wife three years to pay off in by the consent of my Executors, and if there is any personal property that has not been disposed of after my just debts have been paid & my wife receives her one third then I want it equally divided between my above named children. I want my son Henry to have my watch & one fox roan calf. I have given him of which I give my wife not my Ex any right of disposing.

Now this is my last will & testament & I have appointed my sons John A. Miller & Charles E. Miller Executors which I do have power to divide my real estate into titles to the children giving them full power to sell that this my last will is carried out & put in force also to receive any titles that is due me and have proper that the title of my daughter David Osborne wife of Dick Osborne be made to the heirs of James A. Miller deceased.

Whereunto I have this day set my hand and seal
 This 22 day of April 1901
 Signed Publicer delivered in presence of
 J. J. Miller
 J. M. Brooks
 J. L. Ham

State of North Carolina } ss. In the Superior Court.
 Chancery

A paper purporting to be the last will and testament of James S. Miller deceased, is exhibited before me, and under signed Clerk of the Superior Court for said County by J. J. Miller and of the Executors therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said James S. Miller by the oath and examination of J. M. Brooks, D. M. Brooks and C. L. Hunt the undersigned witnesses thereto, who bring duly sworn and depose and say under oath for himself separately and jointly, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him purporting to be the last will and testament of James S. Miller that the said James S. Miller in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 22nd day of April 1901.

And the deponent further saith, that the said James S. Miller the testator aforesaid, died at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid to said the said paper writing and subscribed by him, and exhibited to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did throughout subscribe his name at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto, as at and to the request and in the presence of said testator.

And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, as at the time of the deponent subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid the said James S. Miller was of sound mind and memory, of full age the 5 years and over and was not under restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent, and further the deponent saith, that

 J. M. Miller
 D. M. Brooks
 C. L. Hunt

So verally sworn and subscribed
 This 3rd day of June 1901. before me
 A. J. Allen.
 Clerk of Superior Court.

Joseph Jacobson } ss. In the Superior Court
 Chancery

His Honor the Court considered and all-judged by the Court, that the said paper writing under my hand, shown in the last will and testament of James S. Miller, deceased, is the said will, together with the probate thereon as aforesaid.

This 3rd day of June 1901.
 A. J. Allen.
 Clerk of Superior Court.