A paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of James A. Scott, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by E. S. Davis this 12 day of January 1901.

James A Scot by the oath and examination of H.G. Phipps and Jas Estep, the subscribing witness thereto, who being duly sworn doth depose and say, and each for himself deposeth and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of James A Scot, that the said James A Scot in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper, writing by making his mark and acknowledging same, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 12 day of January, 1903.

And the deponent further saith, That the said James A Scot the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibits to be his last Will and Testament. And this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last Will as aforesaid by making his mark and acknowledging same, and at the time of the deponents subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said James A Scot was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent; And further these deponents say not.

Know all men by these presents that I Jacob Blevins of the County of Ashe and State of North Carolina being aware of the uncertainty of life but of sound mind and memory do make and declare this to be my last will and testament in regard to my real estate in the following manner to wit:

First I give devise and bequeath to my oldest son Madison Blevins the tract of land whereon he the said Madison Blevins now lives containing seventy five acres more or less known as the Deboard land which I now own and bounded as follows to wit Beginning on a Beech and running in aee with Elijah Blevins line to a Black Gum, thence with Anderson line to a Black Gum, thence with the Anderson line to Mr Smiths corner, thence with Alex Smiths line to a white oak in Gentry line thence with Gentry line to a Hickory stump thence with Jacob Blevins old line to a stake on top of the hill thence with the said old line to a stake on top of the hill Jacob Blevins old corner thence with said old line to a stake a corner made by Jacob Blevins thence to the Beginning.

The said Madison Blevins is to pay a certain debt which is now due Lee Porter in which Madison Blevins is principal and John W Phipps Sec is surety to the sum of forty dollars principal, interest and cost to be added and pay each of my three daughters Lutitia Phipps Sixty six and two thirds dollars, Phebe Brown sixty six and two thirds dollars and Louisa J Blevins sixty six and two thirds dollars also pay my Jacob Blevins one third of the products of said lands as long as I live or demand it. If the said Madison Blevins fails to pay the said Lee Porter debt when required to be paid by law or fails to pay the above named amounts to my three above named daughters within twelve months after my death the above named land shall be used and sold to make said payments.

Second I give devise and bequeath to my second son Mitchell Lawson Blevins all of my home lands west of a certain line Beginning on a stake known as the Deboard corner and running a south direction to a bridge across the road leading by way of Jacob Blevins to his home thence to a large Willow tree, thence to a large apple tree thence on the same road to a stake where
