

Jane Edwards Will

In the name of God Amen, I Jane Edwards being feeble in body and ~~in~~ health, but of a sound mind and disposing mind, do make this my last Will and Testament in the following manner to wit, That is, I hereby give and bequeath unto my beloved son Osborne Edwards. my Negro man by the name of Richmond, I then give and bequeath unto my daughter Phebe Cox my Negro Woman & child by the name of Gineey that is to say I give them & their increase unto my daughter Cox during her Natural lifetime and then to be equally divided in value ~~between~~ between her children. I then give and bequeath equally between my son Osborne Edwards and daughter Phebe Cox all my stock of every description, I then give and bequeath unto my several children, That is Enoch Reeves, George Reeves, Polly McMillan, Nancy Cox & Rebecca Gentry all of my household & Kitchen furniture of all that I may possess at the time of death, to be equally divided, then, and the several heirs of my son Jesse Reeves dec'd, and I hereby constitute and appoint my son Osborne Edwards. the Executor of this my last will & Testament given under my hand & seal this 4th day of October A.D. 1847.

signed in the presence of
us. Fish

Chas Doughten Juror

blond boy Juror

his
Jane & Edwards
mark