

29

Martin Gambill's Will

February 20th day 1812

This Indenture as above written Martin Gambill last Will as he thinks a memorandum as he wants his property to be divided first all just debts paid; all just debts coming to said Estate, ~~After~~ be sold for three years credit by giving good bond & security. Payment of money and interest at the expiration of the said time. Nancy Gambill may agree to sell the Land in Tennessee as to say what I will give her & bequeath to my wife Nancy I say I to my children my wife to give they that aint married to have equal portions with them that has been heretofore married. That the said Nancy Gambill has full power to give & bequeath to her youngest children, she shall continue and be vested in that power except she marries & then to continue except she marries a man that is not able to give bond and sufficient security if he can not that shall not cut her out of having a child's part, that part shall return to the children at her death except she exact it for her support.

Martin Gambill (read)

I hereto acknowledge and assign this to be hand & seal for the above purpose and as empower William Gambill and Nancy Gambill to transact and conduct with the property as they think best. This Indenture assigned the day and date above written

test

Nancy ^W Gambill

Jere Gambill Jnr

Dursay Gambill Jnr

Arceus Gambill Jnr

William Gambill

true copy of original