A paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Levi Shepard deceased, is exhibited before me the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court of said County, by Eversy Rowland, the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Levi Shepard by the oath and examination of S. A. Mack and Watson Pennington two of the subscribing witnesses thereto, who being duly sworn, both depose and say, and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Levi Shepard, that the said Levi Shepard in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing by making his mark and acknowledging same, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 4th day of April 1903.

And the deponent further saith, that the said Levi Shepard, the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing to be subscribed by him, and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator, and this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will by making his mark and acknowledging same as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Levi Shepard was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will and was not under any restraint to that knowledge, information or belief of this deponent, and further these deponents say not.
