The last Will & Testament of Quincy H. Seal

I Quincy H. Seal do on this 22nd March 1872 make and declare the following to be and contain my last will & Testament in form following I am 1st I hereby constitute and appoint my wife Adelaide my sole executrix to this my last will & Testament and I hereby devise & grant that she shall have the free use & full control and management of all my estate, property & rights of what ever kind or description, which I now have on which I may heretofore acquire for and during the term of her natural life for her sole use and benefit - feeling assured she will manage the same prudently & with the purpose of advancing the interest of our children including the living representatives of my deceased son Luther which I wish to share equal in the remainder.

Item^{2nd} If my son Joz Seal has choice to remain with us & to take care of us in our old age I will and devise, that after the death of his mother be, the said John J. Seal shall have the home tract of land with the appurtenances in full simple said to contain above 200 acres but he must pay the other children 2000 to make them all equal with himself. And to that end I find the land to John at three thousand dollars, at which same he may take the land and account to the other children without interest in the final settlement of the estate.

Item^{3rd} After the death of my wife whatever remains of my estate I wish divided equally among all my children to wit - W. H. Seal Joz Seal Hettie A. Scott John J. Seal and Luther my boys Allic & others taking one share subject to the provisions contained in Iowa them in this will But from the share of each of the foregoing there must be deducted the advances made heretofore and hereafter to be made to our children and added to those not so much advanced - and a statement will be herewith filed showing the amount of said advancements. I think ^{it} be my wife is wholly ignorant of all legal forms, & I desire to desire to relieve her of all trouble as far as possible I hereby direct & request that she at all not be required to return any inventory of my estate or make any settlement with the court or otherwise, now make public sale unless she desires it. And I hereby especially enjoin it upon my son Jno to take care of his mother during her remaining life time and to see that all her wishes are complied with and on this account I make no charge of accountments as to him up to this time. Revoking all former wills by me heretofore made I hereby declare this to be and to contain my true and only last will & Testament.

The last Will & Testament of William Miller
North Carolina, July 7, 1878.
Ashe County

I William Miller being sound in mind but weak in body & knowing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death do make this my last Will and Testament. I will to my three youngest Daughters Elizabeth, Sepanna and Mary all my lands both and West of the branch running into the river opposite the old Cox place at a Spruce pine with the exception of eighteen acres which my eldest daughter Colline holds a deed for, adjoining the lands of George Cox David Doggs and Colline Miller also another tract of lands I will to the said girls adjoining John Miller Colline Miller & John Dare containing about 21 or 22 acres at my death Colline is to have this last tract after she makes a deed for the eighteen acres to the three youngest girls named in the above writing. I will that all my children are to all that one and my wife & they are well cared for. I also will will Elisabeth, Sepanna and Mary and my wife all my household and kitchen furniture and all my sheep and horses and two year old heifers which Mary is to have individually. I will that one bay horse is to go on my just debts and if there is any thing unpaid after that all my children are to pay it equally. I will to my two sons Lowry & Willie all my lands from the north of said branch at the Spruce pine up the river near the bend to an ash tree then with Colline Miller's land across the hill to the still house branch and to the beginning. I further will that Lowry Miller pay William Miller my son, fifty-two dollars and fifty cents for his part of the land that Lowry sold and which I intended him to have. I will that Colline pay Colline my eldest son ten dollars and the three youngest girls are to pay him dollars. Colline Lowry is to pay Colline forty dollars and Opie is also to pay Colline forty dollars. The debts I am not paid are of M. Ganson, J. D. Thomas & J. Seal & J. M. Colvance. If either of us me or my wife should become bed ridden the extra trouble shall be estimated and by a disinterested party and all the children are to pay for it out of what I give them signed in the presence of
