No. 363

I Mary Jane Wilson, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, I do make and declare this my last will and testament:

First. My executor, hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my friends and relatives, and pay all funeral expenses, together with all of my just debts, out of the first money which may come into his hands belonging to my estate.

Second. I give and devise to my beloved husband, Lewis Wilson, all of my lands that I now own being situated in Town Creek Township lying on the East side of Punch-butt Swamp, this being the land inherited from my father, (Cato Morris) Except ten acres, for the term of his natural life. And all equitable interest I may have in any other land whatsoever.

Third. I give and devise to James Miller, the son of Lillie Moore and his heirs, in fee simple, the ten acres of land except in former item of this will, being on the North side of the public road leading through the swamp named in this my will, adjoining the lands of John Brown, J. C. Hankins and others, to have and to hold to him and his heirs in fee simple.

Fourth. I give and devise to Julius Wilson, my husband's brother's son, all of my lands and estate above named in this my will, subject to the life estate of my said husband, as devised in a former item of this will, to have and to hold to him and his heirs in fee simple.

And I hereby certify and affirm
