Brunswick.

A paper purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Aaron Atkinson deceased, is exhibited to me, the undersigned, Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by Jim Gray, the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Aaron Atkinson by the oath and examination of John Moore, Jesse Goodall the subscribing witnesses thereto; who each being duly sworn doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper-writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Aaron Atkinson—that the said Aaron Atkinson in the presence of this deponent subscribed his name at the end of said paper-writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the June 20-1908.

And the deponent further saith, that the said Aaron Atkinson the testator aforesaid, did at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid declare the said paper-writing as subscribed by him and exhibited to be his last Will and Testament, and the deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Aaron Atkinson was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.
