No 60

State of North Carolina }
Brunswick County } June 8th 1905.

Know all men by these presents that I Amanda M. Foley, of the above named State and County, being of sound mind and undue influence do make this my last will and Testament.

I give and devise to my daughter Nellie Kate, wife of H. W. Hood for and in consideration of her kindness and devotion to me, the house where she now lives, Cor. Moore & Patterson Streets, with everything contained therein, with 99 feet front back to frame house built in 1891. The Cottage built in 1891 I give to my daughter Mary Martha, wife of Louis S. Hefel with all the lot adjoining the house on the corner. The house known as the (the Hankins) house if not sold before my death I want sold and a stone put to my grave like my husband, and my funeral expenses paid, all I owe paid, and one hundred dollars given to my dear sister Kate Stuart if she is living, the rest to be divided among my grandchildren. If Kate Stuart is dead take $75.00 dollars of the hundred and put a stone to mark her grave the other $25.00 goes to little Warren Hood.

In testimony whereof I herewith set my hand and seal this 6th day of June A.D. 1905
Amanda M. Foley.

Witness, J. B. Ruark.

Witness, M. E. Gutherie.

I appoint my son in law H. W. Hood my sole executor to all my business
A. M. F.

State of North Carolina } In the Brunswick County } Superior Court.
A paper purporting to be the last will and Testament of Mrs. A. M. Foley deceased is exhibited before me the undersigned Clerk of the Superior Court for said County, by H. W. Hood the executor therein named, and the due execution thereof by the said Mrs. A. M. Foley by the oath and examination of M. C. Guthrie Esq. J. B. Ruark the subscribing witness thereto, who being duly sworn, doth depose and say, and each for himself depose and saith, that he is a subscribing witness to the paper-writing now shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Mrs. A. M. Foley that the said Mrs. A. M. Foley in the presence of this deponent subscribed her name at the end of said paper-writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 8th day of June 1900.

And the deponent further saith, that the said Mrs. Amanda M. Foley the testator aforesaid did at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper-writing so subscribed by her and exhibited to be her last Will and Testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said Will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testator, and this deponent further saith that at the same time when the said testator subscribed her name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as an attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said Mrs. A. M. Foley was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a Will, and was not under any restraint to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent: And further this deponent say not.

I, Geneva Bowen, of the above written State and County, being of sound mind, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make and declare this my Last Will and Testament:

First. My Executor, hereinafter named, shall give my body a decent burial, accitable to the wishes of my friends and relations and pay all funeral expenses, together with all my just debts, out of the first moneys which may come into his hands belonging to my Estate.

Second. - I give and devise to my only son Aaron Thomas Bowen, all my right, title & interest which I may have in any and all real property which I may have or may hereafter acquire.

Third. - I give and bequeath unto my said son Aaron Thomas Bowen, all my furniture, sewing machine, organ, and all personal property of whatever kind and nature and whensoever found, also all money that I may have whether the same be in bank or not.

Fourth. - And whereas my said son is a minor of the age of nine years, Now, therefore, my will & desire is that my trust-worthy friend Robert H. Davis, an attorney at law use his best efforts to have a place made or opened so that my said son can be admitted into the Odd Fellows' Hall here at Goldsboro, N. C. of which order my friend is a member and also was my husband a member. It is my desire that my executor hereinafter named counsel and be guided by the advice of the before named Robt. H. Davis as to all matters connected with my estate.

Fifth. - I hereby constitute and appoint my father Henry Robinson my lawful executor to see intents & purposes to execute this my last will and testament, according to the true intent & meaning of the same, and every part & clause thereof, hereby revoking and declaring utterly void all other wills & testaments by me heretofore made.

In witness whereof, I, the said Geneva Bowen do hereby and hereunto set my hand and seal this 20th day of March A. D. 1900.

Geneva Bowen (seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Geneva Bowen to be her last Will & Testament in the presence of us who at her request & in her presence and in the presence of each other do subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.
