State of North Carolina, Brunswick County In the Name of God, Amen! I, Isaac B. Smith, being of sound mind, but in low health, do make & ordain this my last Will & Testament, viz: - I will that my children, including my grand son, James Baker Smith, being in number, shall equally divide my property of any kind, except that the part falling to my daughters is left in special trust to Richard Langdon for their use & is not to be subject to or liable for the debts of their husbands or in their power to sell or exchange. I will that a bed & furniture be given to my grand son James Baker Smith as a part of his proportion, all of which I wish to be placed in the hands of Isaac B. Smith, his uncle, in trust for him - I appoint Elijah Owen, S. B. Overitt & Richard Langdon my Executors to this my last will & Testament hereby revoking all others - In testimony where of I have hereunto set my hand & affixed my seal this 10th day of September, A.D., 1842.

I, Jonathan Rothwell, of the County of Brunswick & State of North Carolina, being of sound mind and memory, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do now declare this my last will & Testament, in manner & form following, that is to say, First, that my Executor hereinafter named shall provide for my body a decent burial suitable to the wishes of my relatives & friends & pay all funeral expenses together with my just debts whatsoever & to whomsoever owing out of the moneys that may first come into his hands as a part or parcel of my estate - Item 1st. - I give & bequeath to my wife Mary Rothwell the following property, namely, Ely, & John and Sabry his wife, & Sary: at the death of my wife Sary, to become the property of Morgan C. Turrentine & my daughter Lydia, his wife. John & Sabry to remain on the plantation in the care of M. C. Turrentine. - I also bequeath to my wife Mary my boy Ned to serve her during her life & at her death to become the property of my son M. C. Rothwell I also will her a life estate in the dwelling where she now resides, and that part of the plantation that I leave to Morgan C. Turrentine. - I bequeath to Morgan C. Turrentine my son-in-law, and my daughter Lydia, his wife the following property - namely, Fanny and her children, John, William, Pappy, Ann, Lucy, Louisa and Ellen. I also leave them Eli a man about twenty four years old - I leave to my son M. C.
 Rothwell, Robert, Ely, Richard, Island and Ned. Ned to remain on the plantation for the use of my wife Mary until her death.
 I will to my son Jonathan M. Rothwell, Pappy, Fanny, John, Wescot, Maria and Betsey - Betsey to remain with her mother for the use of my wife, Mary, until her death - I also give them one bed, bedstead and pillow. I will to my grand son, Saml. H. King one bed, bedstead & pillow. I will John Marshall & my grand daughter Sarah Jane Marshall the following negro Nobby & her children, Susy & Pail. Should Sarah Jane Marshall die, leaving no children, the above named property to be returned & equally divided among my children. I further give to my wife Mary Rothwell during her life a negro man named Nat and at her death to go to M. C. Turrentine & wife Lydia. I also give my son-in-law, M. C. Turrentine & my daughter Lydia, his wife, the lower part of my plantation lying on the West side of the Cape Fear River in Brunswick County, N. C. known by the name of "Hundred" - The limits to be run from the river on the bed of row near a
