

State of North Carolina,
Brunswick County;

I hereby appoint Olympus Apper my daughter in case of my death, to receive and receipt for any and all money which may be due me, and if I should die before the amount due me from A. H. Goldsmith, secured by mortgage on house and lot sold him by me, is fully paid, then and in that event the said Olympus Apper is hereby appointed my executor to receive, collect and receipt for ~~same~~ and cancel the mortgage made to me by A. H. Goldsmith and wife. And in the event that this said money, or any other money or property should be left by me at my death, my will and desire is that it shall be equally divided share and share alike, between my three daughters, viz: Carrie Davis, Olympus Apper and Annie C. Williams.

State of North Carolina } For the Superior Court
Brunswick County.

A paper writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Annie M. Vernon, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, Clerk Superior Court for said county, by Olympus Apper, the executor mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said Annie M. Vernon, by the oath and examination of Robert W. Davis and D. J. Watson, the subscribing witnesses, who, being duly sworn, do so depose and each for him self depose and swear, that it is a subscribing witness to the paper writing shown him, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Annie M. Vernon; that the said Annie M. Vernon in the presence of this deponent, subscribed her name at the end of said paper writing, which is now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 2nd day of Aug. 1875.

And the deponent further saith, that the said Annie M. Vernon, the testatrix aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing her name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing to be her last Will and Testament, and the deponent did thereupon subscribe her name at the end of said will, as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of said testatrix. And this deponent further saith, that at the same time when the said testatrix subscribed her name to the said last Will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing her name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said ~~Annie M. Vernon~~ was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponent say not.
