Moses Lee

North Carolina, Brunswick County - In the Superior Court

A paper writing without subscribing witnesses, purporting to be the last will and testament of Moses Lee, deceased, is exhibited for probate in open Court by Mrs. Annie L. Lee, the executrix therein named, and it is thereupon proved by the oath and examination of Allen Calmonious, that the said will was found among the valuable papers and effects of the said Moses Lee, after his death and it is further proved by the oath and examination of three competent and credible witnesses, to wit, Sam S. Drew, Robert W. David and William Brown, that they are acquainted with the handwriting of the said Moses Lee, having often seen him write, and verily believe that the name of the said Moses Lee subscribed to the said will, and the said will itself, and every part thereof, is in the handwriting of the said Moses Lee. And it is further proved by the evidence of the last mentioned witnesses, that the said handwriting is generally known to the acquaintances of the said Moses Lee. It is, therefore, considered by the Court that the said paper writing is the last will and testament of the said Moses Lee, and the is ordered to be recorded and filed. Sworn to and subscribed before me this 25th day of March 1895.
