A paper writing purporting to be the last will and testament of R. J. Hyatt, deceased, is exhibited before me, the undersigned, clerk of the Superior Court for said county, by G. Butler Thompson the executor therein mentioned, and the due execution thereof by the said R. J. Hyatt is proved by the oath and examination of C. L. Hork, one of the subscribing witnesses, thereto, who, being duly sworn, does depose and say that he is a subscribing witness to the paper writing now shown him, purporting to be the last will and testament of R. J. Hyatt; that the said R. J. Hyatt, in the presence of this deponent, subscribed his name at the end of said paper writing now shown as aforesaid, and which bears date of the 9th day of December, 1943.

And the deponent further saith that the said R. J. Hyatt, the testator aforesaid, did, at the time of subscribing his name as aforesaid, declare the said paper writing so subscribed by him and exhibited, to be his last will and testament, and this deponent did thereupon subscribe his name at the end of said will as an attesting witness thereto, and at the request and in the presence of the said testator. And this deponent further saith that at the said time when the said testator subscribed his name to the said last will as aforesaid, and at the time of the deponent's subscribing his name as attesting witness thereto, as aforesaid, the said R. J. Hyatt was of sound mind and memory, of full age to execute a will, and was not under any restraint, to the knowledge, information or belief of this deponent. And further these deponents say not.
