I, Edward P. Lancaster, of the aforesaid County and State, being of sound disposing mind and memory, but considering the uncertainty of my earthly existence, do make, ordain, declare and publish this my last will and Testament, that is to say:

First: I direct my Executors, hereinafter named, to give my body decent burial, suitable to the wishes of my friends and relations, and to pay my funeral expenses and all my just debts, out of the first moneys belonging to my estate which may come into their hands.

Second: I give, devise and bequeath to my two beloved sons, Thomas C. Lancaster, and Ross Madison Lancaster, and their heirs, all my estate, both real and personal, of whatever kind and wherever located. Should my said son, Thomas C. Lancaster, who is now unmarried, die without issue, then his share and part of my estate shall go to my said son, Ross Madison Lancaster, and his heirs. The real property of which I am now seized and possessed is my homestead upon which I have lived for about 47 years, and is situated in Smithville Township, on the Old Hargetown Road, near the 11 mile post, and on the waters of Aspy's Creek.

I nominate, constitute and appoint my two said sons, Thomas C. Lancaster and Ross Madison Lancaster, my Executors of this my last will and Testament, and each and every part thereof.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and affixed my seal, this the seventh (7th) day of January, A.D. 1918.

Edw. P. Lancaster, Esq.

Signed, sealed, Declared and Published by the said Edward P. Lancaster to be his last will and Testament, in the presence of us, who at his request, and in his presence, and in the presence of each other, do hereby subscribe our names as witnesses thereto.
